Senior Executive Service Vacancy

ANNOUNCEMENT NUMBER: S20010014-C

OPEN: 10/11/2000

CLOSE: 11/20/2000

POSITION VACANT: Director, Division of Grants and Agreements (DGA), Office of Budget, Finance and Award Management (BFA)

LOCATION: Arlington, VA

SALARY RANGE: ES-1 TO ES-4 ($115,811 – 130,200)

AREA OF CONSIDERATION: All Qualified Applicants

STATEMENT OF DUTIES: The incumbent provides leadership and direction to the Division of Grants and Agreements (DGA) and is a member of the BFA executive team. The National Science Foundation, an independent Federal agency, promotes and advances science and engineering in the United States through programs that invest over $3.5 billion per year in almost 30,000 research and education projects. DGA is responsible for the business, financial, policy, administration, regulatory, management and other non-scientific and technical aspects of all NSF grants, cooperative, interagency and other agreements. The Division Director incorporates vision, strategic planning and quality management into organizational activities and initiatives. The incumbent recommends policy, budgetary, and management options to the Chief Financial Officer and allocates staffing and funding resources within the Division.

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIREMENTS

EXECUTIVE/MANAGERIAL

Essential

1. Demonstrated ability to develop and implement an organizational vision that integrates key national and program goals, priorities, values and other factors. Inherent to it is the ability to balance change and continuity – to continually strive to improve customer service and program performance within the basic Government framework, to create a work environment that encourages creative thinking, and to maintain focus, intensity, and persistence, even under adversity. (Leading Change)
2. Demonstrated ability to design and implement strategies which maximize employee potential and foster high ethical standards in meeting the organization's vision, mission and goals. Includes knowledge and ability to promote quality through the effective use of performance standards and assessment. Includes valuing cultural diversity and other differences, promoting developmental opportunities for staff, fostering commitment and team spirit, and constructively resolving conflicts. (Leading People)
3. Demonstrated knowledge and ability in planning, prioritizing, and coordinating both operational and policy program activities in research and education assistance management, research facilities and centers management and to stress accountability and continuous improvement. Includes the ability to make timely and effective decisions and to produce results through strategic planning, and the implementation and evaluation of programs and policies. (Results Driven)
4. Demonstrated ability to acquire and administer human, financial, material, and information resources in a manner that instills public trust and accomplishes the organization's mission and to take advantage of new technologies to enhance the effectiveness of decision making. Includes demonstrated ability in recruiting and selecting staff, allocating financial resources, and managing budgetary processes. (Business Acumen)
5. Demonstrated ability to serve as a senior spokesperson for the agency's grant administering program and to foster partnerships. Includes ability to explain, advocate and express facts and ideas, both orally and in writing, in a convincing manner and negotiate with individuals and groups internally and externally. It also involves the ability to develop an expansive professional network with other organizations, and to identify the internal and external politics that impact the work of the organization. Includes the ability to interact constructively with Federal officials, representatives of professional organizations, and the public sector on complex policy-level and technical issues. (Building Coalitions/ Communication)
